

YES on Prop. 50

Proposition 50- What Is It?

This special election ballot measure would temporarily allow the legislature to redraw congressional district maps. Prop 50 was placed on the ballot in response to partisan redistricting efforts in other states, primarily Texas.

Proposition 50 proposes new lines for many of California's 52 congressional districts, which would negate the five Republican seats drawn by Texas. Under the proposed lines, Democrats could gain up to 5 seats in the U.S. House of Representatives. With a majority in the House, Democrats can fight back against Trump and Republicans' MAGA agenda.

Proposition 50- Who Supports It?

Led by Governor Gavin Newsom, YES on Prop 50 is endorsed by the California Democratic Party and backed by leaders like former President Barack Obama, Senator Alex Padilla, Senator Adam Schiff, Speaker Emerita Nancy Pelosi, election experts, independent redistricting commissioners, the NAACP, California veterans, teachers, and nurses, as well as:

- State Building and Construction Trades Council
- CA Teachers Association
- SEIU California
- AFSCME International
- California Conference of Carpenters
- Operating Engineers, Local 3

Why do WE SUPPORT Proposition 50?

- Protects Union Jobs and Infrastructure Projects
 - Prop 50 will defend against the current administration's attempts to cancel any further critical infrastructure projects.
- Defends Collective Bargaining and Workers' Rights
 - Prop 50 will push back on attacks on our wages and safety standards for workers.
- Advances Clean Energy and Transportation Infrastructure
 - Prop 50 will further help secure the votes necessary to pass legislation that supports California's clean energy future and critical transportation projects like High-Speed Rail.
- Strengthens Labor's Political Voice
 - Prop 50 will amplify the voices of working families, advocating for good jobs and strong labor standards for our members.
